

Connect what you're already teaching to issue kids care about – LTG's standards-aligned lessons inspire students to use their hearts and minds to impact their community and themselves.

Main Page Features:

- Currently featured resources and lesson plans: Find motivation and ideas for infusing giving concepts into your teaching and guiding students in service-learning projects. Updated weekly.
- Search Lessons – Over 1,700 K-12 lesson plans to inspire and equip students who use their hearts and minds to impact their world- Filter by grade level, subject area, content, time of year, and more
- Create a free account to get access to the free LTG mini-courses, other exclusive content and the ability to comment on and bookmark the lesson plans, and share your classroom experiences.
- Trending - LTG News – service-Learning and mini-grant stories – hot topics and guest blogs

Four Tabs at the top: TEACH ; GET STARTED ; PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT ; ABOUT

TEACH: Why Teach Philanthropy? Drop down Menu below:

- Lessons – Free classroom lesson plans (K-12) creatively infusing philanthropy, caring, and civic engagement into academic content and serve as a foundation for a student-centered approach. Teacher-created and aligned to academic standards.
- Current Events – Tips and tools related to current events. Involve your students' voice and action to make a difference.
- Issue Areas – Each of the 17 different Issue Areas has a Toolkit of lesson plans, community resources, and project ideas related to Themes You Care About.
- Activities – Videos, Literature, and Activity Guides
- In Your Region – Focused resources created in partnership with educators and organizations in a specific region, or for independent schools.

GET STARTED: 10 Ways to Get Started!

Drop down Menu includes:

- TeachOne: TeachOne includes initiatives throughout the school year, each with a lesson plan and project for grades K-5, 6-8, and 9-12. (Back to School; MLK Jr. Day, Earth Day)
- Learning to Give Teacher Stories – Inspiring stories of teachers who used LTG lesson to teach knowledge and action of generosity of community.
- Build Community – Activities and lessons to use foster a classroom and community of caring, respect, and involvement that leads to a better civil society. (Blue Sky Envisioning; Map Your Heartbreak; Creating Student-Generated Classroom Rules and More!)
- Develop Skills and Knowledge – Activities and lesson plans to help foster a culture of caring, respect, and purposeful inquiry. (Get to the Root; Difficult Conversations; Media Literacy; Resolving Conflict, Community Mapping of Resources and More!)
- Take Action –Activities and lesson plans to help connect learning to community and empower students' voice and choice to take action to make a difference.(The Stages of Service-Learning, Whiteboard Videos;Four Types of Service;Power of Reflection; Service-Learning Toolkits by Issue Area)
- Plan Giving Instruction – Monthly Moments of Service lessons and resources. Add service to your calendar by aligning philanthropy lessons and service-learning projects to monthly events. Download printable versions of the yearly calendar of “teachable moments of service”.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT:

- Online Courses – Free Mini-Courses at your desktop – earn a certificates for PGP points
- White Papers – Briefing papers providing abbreviated snapshots of significant concepts, people, and organizations related to philanthropy.

ABOUT: LTG Mission, Vision, History, Board; Staff; Contact; Partners (This includes partners Resources) Support Us